BEREA, Ky. – On Saturday, June 8, Janet Northern, of Mount Vernon, will create baskets using honeysuckle vines and hickory bark from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Kentucky Artisan Center at Berea.

Northern has been making baskets for 16 years and is primarily self-taught. She utilizes the wood and natural vines that she finds and gathers in the region surrounding her Rockcastle County farm to create her baskets. The eastern Kentucky woodlands give Northern inspiration as well as material from which to work.

Preparation of the honeysuckle vines involves boiling them for 30 minutes then stripping off the outer bark to reveal the honey-colored, pliable surface of the vine. When the vines are freshly cut they are pliable, but over time they dry out and need to be soaked in water to soften them.

Starting with an interesting piece of wood, Northern begins to design her asymmetrical one-of-a-kind baskets, often creating multiple openings. She soaks the honeysuckle vines in water, attaches them to the piece of wood chosen, and begins to weave her beautiful asymmetrical shapes.

Northern also creates baskets from the inner bark of hickory trees. These are usually started with a crisscross pattern and a square bottom. She cuts and tapers the hickory bark into varying widths, depending on the size and function of each basket.

Baskets by Northern are regularly available at the Kentucky Artisan Center at Berea, located at 200 Artisan Way, just off Interstate 75 at Berea, Exit 77. The center's exhibits, shopping and travel information areas are open daily, year-round, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and the cafe is open from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Admission is free.

The center currently features works by more than 650 artisans from more than 100 counties across the Commonwealth. Two special exhibits, "The Kentucky Artisan Center at Berea: Celebrating 10 Years," is on display through Aug. 24, and "Connected by a Thread: Quilts by the Kentucky Six+," is on display in the lobby through June 29.
